from KAY CALVERT, BOARD CHAIR:

"I hope you will join me in sponsoring Nourish and supporting the conversations that can transform communities. As a champion of dialogue, you are equipping people to communicate across their differences, and communities to heal from the conflicts that divide them."

keynote speaker
KRISTA TIPPETT

Krista Tippett is a Peabody-award-winning broadcaster, New York Times bestselling author, and National Humanities Medalist. As the creator and host of public radio's On Being, she takes up the great questions of meaning amidst the political, economic, cultural, and technological shifts of 21st century life. In 2013, Krista took On Being and its emergent Civil Conversations Project into independent production, creating "a social enterprise with a radio show at its heart." She grew up in Oklahoma, attended Brown University, was a journalist and diplomat in Cold War Berlin, and holds a masters of divinity from Yale. Her books include Einstein's God, Speaking of Faith, and most recently Becoming Wise: An Inquiry into the Mystery and Art of Living.
